2. Marital Property

NOTE: How property is defined is important in divorce cases. Marital property includes all assets acquired during the marriage (including any separation) regardless of how it is titled or who paid for it. It does not include property acquired by inheritance or gift from a third party, property acquired before your marriage, property excluded by a valid agreement, or property directly traceable to any of these sources. Division of real estate, business, and retirement assets such as pensions can get complicated. There is no court form for dividing or dealing with these types of assets, survivor annuities, or death benefits. Consider speaking to a lawyer. Visit mdcourts.gov/divorce to see a video How the Court Divides Jointly-Owned Property.

Check one:

- ☐ We have not acquired any marital property.
- ☐ We distributed our marital property to our satisfaction.
- ☒ We have agreed on how to distribute our marital property as follows: (Explain how all marital property will be distributed. Attach additional sheets if needed.)

Please see attached sheet.

- ☒ We understand and accept that the terms in this agreement regarding marital property are final and can never be changed by a court.

3. Custody and Child Support (Check all that apply):

- ☒ We have no children under the age of 18 together.
- ☐ We have a child or children under the age of 18 together. See attached Parenting Plan (a custody agreement we believe is in the best interest of our child(ren)), a Child Support Guidelines Worksheet and/or an Order for Child Support.
- ☐ We have an adult child or children together who is/are not able to support themselves due to a disability. See attached plan for their care and support.
- ☒ We understand that terms regarding our children may be modified.

4. We understand and accept that the terms in this agreement regarding marital property are final and can never be changed by a court. We understand that terms regarding our children may be modified. We understand that terms regarding alimony may be modified unless we say that they may not.
5. We request that this agreement be incorporated, but not merged, into a Judgment of Absolute Divorce. This means our agreement will become part of our final divorce order.

Case No. _____

NOTE: You have the right to consult with a lawyer to review this document before you sign it. If you choose not to, that will NOT be a reason to invalidate this agreement.

We understand all parts of this agreement and enter into it freely and voluntarily. This agreement represents a fair resolution of all issues in our marriage.
